

Welcome to Parking in Stroudsburg Borough

The Parking Office is located in the Stroudsburg Borough Municipal Building on the corner of Sarah and N. Seventh Streets on the second floor of the firehouse. Free parking is available on N. Seventh Street right outside the building. The Parking Office is open weekdays from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., telephone 570-424-7008.

Metered Parking and Violations

Parking meters are in effect Monday through Saturday from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Sundays and Legal Holidays, as outlined in Stroudsburg Borough Code Chapter 15 §101 are free. All other parking regulations are enforced on Sundays and Legal Holidays.

Vehicles parked at an expired meter may be ticketed every two hours. Expired meter violations are $10 each if paid in full within 7 calendar days.

Meters in the downtown core area are $.50 per hour with a three hour parking limit. Vehicles remaining on the same block after three hours are subject to a $15 violation. All other meters are $.25 per hour. Meters accept quarters and dimes only. In Parking Lot #2 and #3 Credit/Debit cards are accepted, rates are $.50 per hour.

Parking violations may be paid at the Parking Office, in the drop box outside the Municipal Building on N. Seventh Street, by mail, on-line at www.boroughofstroudsburgtix.com or by phone at 1-888-912-1536. A user fee is applicable when using the on-line or phone service. If you feel a ticket has been issued in error, you may complete and remit to the parking office a Ticket Review Form. Forms may be obtained online, over the phone or in the parking office during business hours.

Unsettled Parking Violations

Vehicles with five or more unsettled parking violations left unpaid for 30 days or more may be “booted”. To have a boot removed from your vehicle, satisfy all citations, fines, penalties and fees at the District Magistrate’s Office at 823A Ann Street, Stroudsburg. Proof of payment will be provided to the vehicle owner by the Magistrate’s Office which must be brought to the Borough Office to settle all overdue parking violations plus a $50 boot release fee. Payment must be made within 72 hours after the vehicle has been booted to avoid added expenses for towing and storage.

To claim a towed vehicle, satisfy all citations, fines, penalties and fees at the District Magistrate’s Office at 823A Ann Street, Stroudsburg. Proof of payment will be provided to the vehicle owner by the Magistrate’s Office which must be brought to the Borough Office to settle all overdue parking violations plus a $50 boot release fee. The Borough will provide proof of payment to the vehicle owner, who in turn must provide that proof to the towing company before the vehicle can be released. Towing and storage fees must be paid directly to the towing company.

Public Parking Permits for Municipal Lots

The Borough offers public quarterly parking permits in the downtown area to be used in municipal lots. The quarterly rates range from $60 to $160. Permits will not be issued to anyone with outstanding parking violations.

Residential Parking Permits & Renewals

The Borough has three Residential Parking Districts. Residents of these districts may obtain bi-annual parking permits for vehicles registered to them. The permits allow district residents to park on the street. Non-residents are permitted to park within these districts for one hour. Those vehicles parked longer than one hour without a permit are subject to a $15 fine. Permits are $5 each and may be purchased in the Parking Office. Residents must provide proof of residency when purchasing or renewing permits. Owners may bring a current utility bill, along with a valid driver’s license, while renters must provide a current lease along with a valid driver’s license. Permits will not be issued to anyone with outstanding parking violations.

- The Hill District parking permits expire September 30th of odd number years.
- The South Side District parking permits expire on May 31st of odd numbers years.
- The West Side District permits expire October 30th of odd number years.
